

AN OVERVIEW OF THE RESPONSIBLE BEHAVIOUR PLAN & UNIFORM POLICY

Please Note: A copy of both the school's Responsible Behaviour Policy and the Uniform Policy is available on the school website (<https://pullenvaleless.eq.edu.au/Pages/default.aspx>) or in hard copy from the School Office.

Pullenvale State School is committed to providing a safe, respectful and disciplined learning environment for students and staff, where students have opportunities to engage in quality learning experiences and acquire values supportive of their lifelong wellbeing. All areas of Pullenvale State School are learning and teaching environments. We consider behaviour management to be an opportunity for valuable social learning as well as a means of maximising the success of academic education programs.

Our Responsible Behaviour Plan outlines our system for facilitating positive behaviours, preventing problem behaviour and responding to unacceptable behaviours. Through our school plan, shared expectations for student behaviour are evident to everyone, assisting Pullenvale State School to create and maintain a positive and productive learning and teaching environment.

Our school community has identified the following school rules to teach and promote our high standards of responsible behaviour. At Pullenvale State School, being responsible is to:

- Be safe
- Be respectful
- Be a learner

Our school rules have been agreed upon and endorsed by all staff and our school P&C. They are aligned with the values, principles and expected standards outlined in Education Queensland's Code of School Behaviour.

Pullenvale State School makes systematic efforts to prevent problem student behaviour by teaching and reinforcing expected behaviours on an ongoing basis. All classrooms and teaching areas at Pullenvale State School display the "Classroom Behaviour Zones" poster. It outlines the sequence of consequences for inappropriate classroom behaviours.

Pullenvale State School implement a variety of proactive and preventative processes and strategies to support student behaviour. These include Principal's Awards, class reward systems and playground "Gotchas".

Pullenvale State School is a "uniform school". This school dress standard promotes a safe and supportive learning environment by

Consequently, it is expected that all students wear the correct uniform (as outlined in detail in the policy). A note from a parent /guardian is required if a student is unable to wear the correct uniform on a particular day.
